2018 – 2019 Circular to Parents (136)
Australia Study Tour

27 March 2019

Dearest parents,

I have great pleasure to introduce to you the Australia Study Tour, which is organized by the English Department of our school. The tour aims at broadening the horizon of our students and enabling them to learn and understand a foreign culture. It will also strengthen their English language skills and enhance their learning motivation. The details are as follows:

Australia Study Tour

All participating students will have lessons with students of Tyndale Christian School, a well-known Christian college in Australia. Participants have great opportunity to study the local curriculum with their students. They can also practise English and experience the lifestyle in Australia during the homestay. Moreover, students will have sightseeing and natural landscape appreciation.
